★★★★ Golf Digest

Designed by Porter Gibson and built in 1989, this 18-hole championship, par 72, course features Bermuda fairways, Champion 'Ultradwarf' Bermuda greens, and bunkers filled with crystal white sands. The course features rolling hills and mossy oaks mixed with Loblolly pines. With 40 bunkers and 5 water hazards, players of all skill levels will find the challenge a rewarding one. Southern hospitality, a friendly layout and consistent course conditions are just a few reasons why Santee National Golf Club has become one of the most popular golf courses in Santee and the surrounding area. Be sure to complete your package by adding Santee National Golf Club.

LAKE MARION GOLF COURSE

★★★½ Golf Digest

Free Range Balls and
$5 Unlimited Replay Available

Lake Marion Golf Course, designed by Eddie Riccoboni, continues proving itself as one of the best golf experiences in the Santee and surrounding area. Lake Marion features MiniVerde® Bermudagrass greens, a recently developed hybrid-Bermuda surface that putts incredibly true with an increased pace over the more traditional varieties of Bermuda greens found on some of the other area courses. Lake Marion will also thrill you with its pine tree-lined fairways, sparkling lakes and 47 protective bunkers.

ORANGEBURG COUNTRY CLUB

Originally designed by respected architect Ellis Maples in 1963, the course was renovated by Pinehurst-based architect Richard Mandell in 2009. The renovation was acknowledged by the SC Golf Ratings Panel as one of the state's "Most Improved Courses of the Decade." The Panel also ranked OCC as one of the "Top 50 Courses in South Carolina" and "Top 30 Places That You Can Play." The Club's Champion Bermuda putting surfaces and consistent maintaining of tour-caliber speeds of 11-13 feet on the Stimpmeter, present a challenge for golfers of all handicaps. OCC offers a premier golf and visual experience with a scenic view of the Edisto River from well-manicured, tree-lined fairways and greens.
