At Santee National, you'll find a challenging 18-hole golf course featuring Bermuda fairways and Champion Bermuda greens, and newly renovated bunkers. Rolling hills and mossy oaks come together to mix Low Country charm with highland terrain. Four strategically situated lakes bring water into play on the course. With four tees at each hole, golfers can match the challenge of the course to their skill level, ensuring an enjoyable – yet true – test of golf. We're proud to have been rated four stars by Golf Digest's Places to Play.

★★★★☆ — Golf Digest

Located in the heart of Santee lies one of the more rewarding golf experiences in the area. Lake Marion Golf Course is a perennial favorite with traveling golfers and features fantastic miniverde greens that are in perfect shape all year long. Lake Marion will challenge you with pine tree-lined fairways, bordering lakes and new, white sand bunkers. But don't let these challenges fool you. Lake Marion is an extremely fair test of golf and is sure to please players of all abilities.

The sister course to Lake Marion,

Santee Cooper Country Club offers perhaps the most scenic round of golf in the area. Set amid majestic pines and native foliage, this well-conditioned layout will test every shot in your bag with its series of beautiful dogleg holes, strategic bunkering and challenging par 3's. You are certain to enjoy the magnificently designed risk-reward par 5's and the course's elevation changes. Santee Cooper Country Club offers the best closing hole in Santee with a panoramic view of Lake Marion's sparkling waters.

*Top 10 Best Public
Courses in SC*

—by South Carolina's State Newspaper

Truly more than just another 18 holes, this Tom

Jackson signature course is a gold nugget in the Santee Cooper lakes area. The par 72 golf course features Bermuda fairways and NEW Tif-Eagle Bermuda greens (summer 2021). With a well-maintained layout, accented with native grasses and marshlands, it is no surprise that Wyboo Golf Club is selected annually by The State Newspaper as one of the Top 10 Best Public Courses in South Carolina.

Orangeburg Country Club

Originally designed by respected architect Ellis Maples in 1963, the course was renovated by Pinehurst-based architect Richard Mandell in 2009. The renovation was acknowledged by the SC Golf Ratings Panel as one of the state’s “Most Improved Courses of the Decade.” The Panel also ranked OCC as one of the “Top 50 Courses in South Carolina” and “Top 30 Places That You Can Play.” The Club’s Champion Bermuda putting surfaces and consistent maintenance of tour-caliber speeds of 11-13 feet on the Stimpmeter, present a challenge for golfers of all handicaps. OCC offers a premier golf and visual experience with a scenic view of the Edisto River from well-manicured, tree-lined fairways and greens.
